

Exhumed, Deceprit Cresendo

Once upon the slab
The torso starts to swell as entrails bloat
After the toes are tagged
Crepitus is the smell that has you clutching your throat
Irrigate flatus, foul, tepid splatter...
Deceprit Crescendo

Flatulent emanations so rank
The air's turning sour as the bowels start to leak
The morgue is now fetid and drunk
The stench overpowers, such a noxious, nauseating reek
Crepitating stiffs, take another whiff...
Deceprit Crescendo

The hypertrophic cadaver erupts
With a curdling stench as it's bowels starts to vent
The creaking anus ernits a stench so corput
Your guts will be wrenched 'til the intestinal tract is spent Putrid odours emanate, from beneath the mortuary drape...
