

Exilia, Sweet Rain

And if things go right and there's another love in sight
And if you change and take another way to go
Then you'll have your day and the time will pass on by

But it's still around lost in dust an'under useless stuff
Hidden here that old song that still hurts when you here it play
Oh that special day

Cause it takes you right back heart'n'soul back in time
So much so you could swear that you feel

Yeah feel his hands on you that way-y/y
That same sweet rain on you that way
That far off day-y/y
And it makes you laugh again that way

Well things may change but the world keeps rollin' on
So keep a place a safe place for the photo you loved so much
And you'll feel his touch

Cause it takes you right back heart'n'soul back in time
So much so you will know that he's there

And feel his hands on you that way-y/y
That same sweet rain on you that way
That far off day-y/y
And it makes you laugh again that way

Way-y/y
That same sweet rain on you that way
That far off day-y/y
And it makes you laugh again that way
Way-y/y
That same sweet rain on you that way
That far off day-y/y
And it makes you laugh again that way
