

Exodus [Thrash Metal], Pleasures of the flesh

Smell of death lurks around the place
Human need, unholy race
See the bloody pile of bones
The night is filled with hellish moans
It's been around for oh so long
At dawn of time they sang their song
The need to eat the human flesh
The strength it gives to pass the test
Feel the power
Of your unholy death
Feeding-frenzy
Human-flesh
To live
There is no law, it's time to fight
A brutal hunt every night
Life grows through hounds of flesh
A stronger soul from another death
Hidden back, yet deep within Jungle's there, it's always been
Hunt at night to stalk their prey
Kill and eat it before it's day
Feel the power
Of your unholy death
Feeding-frenzy
Human-flesh
To live
Dead bodies lie where they fed
Half eaten carcass stained red
Hunting parties come to call
Leaving nothing, they take it all
There's no need to change their ways
Blood and money, it always pays
Don't disturb their solitude
Or the next victim will be you!
Feel the power
Of your unholy death
Feeding-frenzy
Human-flesh
To live
