

Eye 90, Victim

Time to make a decision.

When all the eyes are on you, stop to think and you can't recall all the things you said that were true.

Caught in the trap that you yourself set. How does it feel to be the victim?

No time left for regret and honestly I wish we never met.

You were wrong again.

On your way you said to popularity and once you're there you'd forget about me.

So I watched you struggle to fit in, but you failed so now I hope you see.

Caught in a trap that you yourself set.

How does it feel to be the victim.

No time left for regret and honestly I wish we never met.

You were wrong again.
