

Eyes Adrift, What I Said

It isn't what I said
Lying now instead
Something in my head
The obvious is dead
That's not what I did
The obvious was hid
Lay down on the floor
Cleanup's not my chore
Silence is better than nothing
Than nothing
Silence is better than nothing

Isn't what I said
World is sick in bed
Roses painted red
Pounding in my head
Silence is better than nothing
Than nothing
Silence is better than nothing

Lying now instead
Dying in my head
Silence is better than nothing
Than nothing
Silence is better than nothing
