

Face Down, Will You

Wild side inside me, takes full control
Troubled defies me, it hammers my soul
My heart is straightcast, but it has a few holes
Which I can fill up faster on the take
It takes its toil

Will you let me in your mind
Will you let you be my eyes
Will you take me to your breast
I had your heart and I lost it in your breath

Nothing to do but run to, what feeds your heart
I want what's inside you, to free m up
You'll never know what goes on inside me
Gotta love the trust, never lucky high soul junkie
I feed on your lust

Translucent mind call me I'll follow
Opaque dreams to feed my sorrow
I can't feel what's in my mind
I can't seem to find the time
How can I be true to you
How can I be true to me
Translucent mind call me I'll follow
Opaque dreams to feed my sorrow
It comes to me in a frozen sweat
Don't make me leave so scared of death
I can't take your pain away
I can't take my pain away
How could I do this to you
How could you do this to me
