

Face To Face, You've Done Nothing

You don't know what you want to be you don't know what you want to do never going to amount to much of anything so what's the difference if you win or lose?
well that's something well isn't that something you've done nothing wrong and it's never your fault you've done nothing don't care were your friends have gone because you never really needed them anyway never going to be exactly who you are because you try too hard to be just like them
you've done nothing
you've got brains in your head and feet in your shoes you can steer yourself any way you choose you're on your own and you know what you know and it's up to you to decide where you'll go
