

Faction, Yesterday Is Gone

Yesterday is gone, let it go I say
And none of its cares will I borrow
Isn't it great to be living today and looking ahead to tomorrow
All these wash outs dwell in the past, wishing that they could go back in time
I don't have their time, I guess I'm too fast don't need their heroes, don't need their kind Yesterday came, yesterday past, yesterday was here, and you're still there.
