

Fady Maalouf, This Anchor Holds

Life can be dark and cold
Just like the bottom of the ocean floor
Push and pull Give and take
Theres so much tension in the crashing waves

But everytime they come around
When they try to knock us down
Let me remind you

Were ship never going under
Never worry
Never wonder
Through the lightning storm and thunder
Trough it all
When all we see is heavy waters
Ill never leave you
Never falter
Youll never face it alone
Cause this anchor holds

Take my hand
know my heart
The only place for me is where you are Close your eyes
Sleep baby sleep
Im gonna hold you for eternitiy

We will make it through the night
Were gonna stand the rest of time
Let me remind you

Were ship never going under
Never worry
Never wonder
Through the lightning storm and thunder
Trough it all
When all we see is heavy waters
Ill never leave you
Never falter
Youll never face it alone
Cause this anchor holds

This anchor holds
This anchor holds
Even though the winds will blow
Come what may
The fire the rain
You can know this anchor holds

Were ship never going under
Never worry
Never wonder
Through the lightning storm and thunder
Trough it all
When all we see is heavy waters
Ill never leave you
Never falter
