

Failure, Saturday Saviour

i'm never gonna say the words that you want
i'm never gonna feel the shame like you do
i'm never gonna stretch my shape to be with you
i only need you for a day
'cause i only wanna be your

saturday saviour
i can be that
saturday saviour
i will be your
saturday saviour
i can be that impostor in your bed
wake him up please

i'm never gonna make you feel that you're satisfied
i'm never gonna feel your pain like you wish i would i'm never gonna open up more than this
i just wanna be your

saturday saviour
i can be that
saturday saviour
i will be your
saturday saviour
i can be that impostor in your bed
wake him up please

i'm never gonna break apart quite like you
i'm never gonna long for life the way you do
i'm never gonna push you out
'cause you're not in this will only take awhile
'cause i only want to be your

saturday saviour
i can be that
saturday saviour
i will be your
saturday saviour
i can be that impostor in your bed
let him out please
