take a little dive into the shallow or spy what do you see?

i see the tortoise and the hare in a rat-race & it fits like a glove under my sleeve just wait till then.

their heads are the heaviest in operation he has still not lost imagination i can hear him mouth the whole ending - just wait till then.

we marys had ourselves a ball oh, yes we did

we marys had ourselves a ball

i must admit you hang us - those limbs hold no virtue those told to hold project on my cue whether a he or a she put your mouth where your money is are the birds of a feather that clever?

if i knew i'd keep locks, that's a given

just wait till then.

(bridge)

listen to my proven guarantees while you're rollin up your sleeves beatin' on the chest

but we can keep it in a jar when it's comin' cats and dogs for days do you hear the concrete guarantees?

and what they've done for you they've done for me.
