

Fais, Hey (ft. Afrojack)

I've seen the look in your face
Telling me a story
You don't have to be alone
I love to see you smiling
Why you try to hide it?
Don't you know you're got it all?

I know when you've gone
You do your thing
And you live like you want
I know when you're gone
You're just looking for a little sign of love

I said: Hey, won't you come with me?
I said: Hey
I said: Hey, hey, won't you stay with me?
I said: Hey

See the way you moving
No need for introducing
You're everything a man could want
You and I, we both know
Only one with this course
Baby let me take you home

I know when you've gone
You do your thing
And you live like you want
I know when you're gone
You're just looking for a little sign of love

I said: Hey, won't you come with me?
I said: Hey
I said: Hey, hey, won't you stay with me?
I said: Hey
