

Faith Evans, Jealous

[Verse 1]

Now let me be real with you.
About my feeling's.
The way that i deal with you.
I just can't conceal it.
I don't really mind all your female friends and all.
Just know that i'm pssessive,
And aggressive when it comes to you.

[Chorus]

Im so jealous
I can't help it i'm not the type who cares to share because im selfish.
Im so jealous i cant control it
Aint no need to lie about it cause i know it.

[Verse 2]

Now don't you get it confused cause im not trippin' and i know thers no substitute
For what im givin'
But all the super friendly extra lovey dovey hugs and greetings
Make me feel like you might be out there cheating.

[Chorus]

Every now and then i might check you caller I.D.
Just to see who's callin' other than me
Every other girl i know does the same thing too.
But they dont even say that they do Oh.

[Chorus 2x]

Im so jealous
I can't help it
Im not the type that cares to share because im selfish.
Im so jealous i can't control it
Aint no need to lie about it cause i know it.

(I got to be real with you i might check your pager to)
