Faith No More, Kindergarten

Return to my own vomit like a dog Rhymes and giggles muffle the dialogue Carve my initials in a tree I will never leave Maybe one day I'll be royalty

Kingdom Kindergarten Born late Will I graduate

Drinking fountains are shorter than they used to be The swings on the playground don't even fit me anymore Folklore: Nobody's supposed to believe in the next grade WRITE IT A HUNDRED TIMES

Kingdom Kindergarten Waiting Bells not ringing

Everthing got quiet suddenly; no dolby The theatre is empty Film is flapping on the side of the projector The reel is over Banished with my sticky shoes and stinging eyes I'M WALKING OUTSIDE

Kingdom Kindergarten Born late Will I graduate

Held back again
