

Faktion, Letting You Go

The things that make us deep
Are the things that we dont speak
Well, you and I
We dont feel like we used to
Every days a memory gone by
What they are to me
Too many words to ever speak
So Im here inside
And Im still alive

How do we make it all real
I just cant decide
I want to know you for a while
Instead of letting you go again
I cant be stuck here forever, you know
Im on fire, I am
Im letting you know
Im letting you go
I watch you go

The things that bring us together
Only wait to tear us apart
Time goes passing over us

We get lost within our hearts
And nobody ever can remember
How we got there strong or not
We've gone limber and bent ourselves
Towards our differences now
Pulling us apart

How do we make it all real
I just cant decide
I want to know you for a while
Instead of letting you go again
I cant be stuck here forever, you know
Im on fire, I am
Im letting you know
Im letting you go
I watch you go

They always try to tell you
Youll be aright in time
But what do they know
Theyre just another
Thats missing something on the inside

And how well ever be
Better than a memory
Is the question
You will ask me
You will ask me in your dreams

In your dreams
You will ask me in your dreams
I will see you in your dreams

How do we make it all real
Im on fire, I am
Im letting you know
