

Fall Out Boy, Gone Yesterday

This night seems to last longer and longer
With every blink of an eye

Gone yesterday
There's no time left for me now.
We've done all we can.
Time just seems to run out.

I just cant wait for things
To get back to the swing of good things to come

Gone yesterday
There's no time left for me now
We've done all we can
Time just seems to run out.
