

Falling Cycle, Before Night Falls

I saw you in my dreams
And woke up empty handed
Emotions left me there to wait and sit back
Everyday I look for you
Everyday I wait for you
Right now I can't feel my heart
They've gone and ripped it out again
But I want to see you
I want to feel you
So long I've waited for you
Another day to spend by myself
Everyday I look for you
Everyday I wait for you
Someday I will find you
Someday we will be together
