

Falling Cycle, For Nothing

To you I dedicate these empty words you left me with For now an empty portrait of your face is all I have You left me with nothing except a broken heart
thank you for nothing
And now your beside yourself and I want my emotions back
thank you for nothing
So here's goodbye from me to you
I showed you everything and you walked away
I don't want the forgiveness for mistakes you made don't try to come back to me
So here's goodbye from me to you
I showed you everything and you walked away
You left me with nothing except a broken heart
thank you for nothing
