

Falling In Reverse, Goodbye Graceful

Can't believe that I survived.
I fell so hard but I'm alive.
Stood in front of the gates of hell,
With a glass of ice water in my hand!
Praying at the edge of my bed,
Get the fuck out of my head!

Goodbye graceful, I'm so grateful.
You help to change my wicked ways when I was in my
Darkest days and I'm so thankful,
That you were able,
To save me from the burning flames,
It made me who I am today.

This dark cloud is still around.
My thoughts wander in and out,
And if I die before I wake,
Tell the devil I'm on my way!
Praying at the edge of my bed,
Get the fuck out of my head!

Goodbye graceful, I'm so grateful.
You help to change my wicked ways when I was in my
Darkest days and I'm so thankful,
That you were able,
To save me from the burning flames,
It made me who I am today.

I've been running for the longest time.
I forgot where I have left my mind.

Goodbye graceful, I'm so grateful, you were able
To have saved me.

Goodbye graceful, I'm so grateful.
You help to change my wicked ways when I was in my
Darkest days and I'm so thankful,
That you were able,
To save me from the burning flames,
It made me who I am today.

Picking all the pieces
Of my life up off the floor.
Searching for an open window or an exit door.
This boulder on my shoulders,
It got heavier and colder, till the day that I got sober.
Now it's slowly rolling over.
To all the people I've done wrong,
Now I apologize.
To all the girls' hearts I broke, tears I made them
Cry.
I know it's been a while and you have traveled many miles,
To get away it's not my style, but I wrote this song to
Make you smile.
