

Falling In Reverse, The Worst Time

This is the worst time you will ever see
And down your throat goes the insecurity
So watch me and leave room to follow
So tell me you'll bring, is this hard to swallow
Please just see, so selfishly, that you are
This isn't as bad before
I keep a simple lie, shot through the heart
You hurt me...you hurt me
This ones not for the radio, this one is to let you know Tell that bastard you have as a father he should have taught you a bit of honor
Please don't leave (go)
Please just see, so selfishly that you are
This isn't as bad as before
I keep a simple lie, shot through the heart
You hurt me
I'd never expect, I'd never of thought that it would turn out this way [x8]
I can see it coming
When everything is broken
We've got to get this fixed right now
You seem so distant [x2]
We thought that we could get along
I'd never of thought, I'd never expect that things would turn out this way
I'd never of thought, I'd never expect
that things would turn out this way
Everything is perfect
