

Falling In Reverse, Tragic Magic

I'm back
Hahaha!

So let's rewind, back to the time
2005, I almost died
I overdosed, I did not know
That I'd provoke this evil ghost
Disaster

Magically
I turned tragedy
Into melodies
Over catchy beats
It comes so naturally
So smooth and casually
That's why they call me king
Of the music scene

Lalalalala...

I dug a hole
10 miles wide
So I could throw all of you inside
You're such a dumbfuck
You need to shut up
You bring a picture of me every time you get your haircut
Imposter!

Magically
I turned tragedy
Into melodies
Over catchy beats
It comes so naturally
So smooth and casually
That's why they call me king
Of the music scene

Lalalalala...

Oh
Bruised and broken
My eyes are open
I won't lose focus
My eyes are open
Can you see in the distance
Can you see the resistance
We will march, rise against them
From the start, rise against them

Magically
I turned tragedy
Into melodies
Over catchy beats
(Lalalalala...)
It comes so naturally
So smooth and casually
That's why they call me king
Of the music scene
(Lalalalala...)

Magically
I turned tragedy
Into melodies
Over catchy beats

(Lalalalala...)
It comes so naturally
So smooth and casually
That's why they call me king
Of the music scene
(Lalalalala...)
