

Falling Up, Intro The Gravity

This place I pass, is in my eyes
The words you spoke, they blow me away like leaves in time
Your clarity, it starts to need
And I am left with words I'm leaving underneath

[2x] This is oceans in
Races start again
Cause you want everything

I see beneath, I hear the breath
I feel the deep and shallow dreams that try to pass
But in this place, where echoes stay
Is just the place where I will start to find escape

[2x] This is oceans in
Races start again
Cause you want everything

[2x] Your world is crashing to the ground
You're alone

[2x] This is oceans in
Races start again
Cause you want everything
