

Falling Up, Symmetry

Stop this, you're never going to find it When you complicate, you are left behind but Longing, steals away the night
And steps away from eyes that are always searching.
This time, you can feel His voice and He's never going to stop until it sinks in deeply.
Falling, Consecrated Lies
And you're letting go with time cause you're through with keeping

It's so real, never gonna stop till you want it, want it.
It's so real, never gonna stop

Cause We're moving with a symmetry and we're crashing like the waves in the sea
and we're moving to your heart this time Release

Cause We're moving with a symmetry
and we're crashing like the waves in the sea
and we're moving to your heart this time
Release

Crashing, feel the way we move Open up your eyes to the things around you Haunting, take away the tears Cause you know that your heart is so close to beating.
This time, you can feel his voice and He's never gonna stop until it sinks in deeply Falling, Consecrated lies
and you're letting go with time cause you're
through with keeping

Cause
It's so real
You are, you are
