You wanna know how much I feel for you
Wish I could show you baby, no can do
In the night
Even if we kiss 'til the morning light
I can begin to which you know how much
You got me living for your loving touch
I swear
If you wanna know how much I care

To show all the love
I'm feeling for you (Feeling for you)
Promise forever,
This dream's never coming true (Coming untrue)

Just like the sun that turns the night to day
You are the one who drove the dark away
And I know, there is no way now I can let you go
So many words I'm feeling of my heart
Tell me tonight is just a place for start lucky
And if you wanna know I did by man
