

Fame Factory, Pearl

Tell me I came here to listen to what you are saying and I won't run away
I don't know all of life's mysteries, but I know enough to tell you That some were just not meant to be together

I won't let you down, will not see you cry
I know you're a pearl, waiting to be found
One step at a time, you're finding your way
I know you're a pearl, waiting to be found

Sadness shape like a teardrop falls from your eyes
I'll make it dry
Though you deserve something better, deserve something true
And some were just not meant to be together

Chorus

(Waiting to be found)

You're a pearl shining for me You're a pearl waiting to be found by somebody who feels the same you're a pearl shining alone through souls drifting apart love is no easy game

But I'll show you

Chorus

You are a (pearl) I won't let you down
I know you're a pearl waiting to be found
one step at a time you're finding your way
I know you're a pearl waiting to be found
