

Fame Factory, Starlight

A jaded heart out of inspiration
Out of luck and out of dreams
I don't know, if it's only imagination Or if it's love that i feel

I try to fly on broken wings Now there's a fire, deep within

i see the starlight in your eyes slowly burning tears from the sky
i see the starlight in your eyes
and i'm slowly coming alive for the very first time

Worlds apart, total isolation i was lost there in between but as i know, you're my final destination the only one that i need

I try to fly on broken wings

i see the starlight in your eyes
slowly burning tears from the sky
i see the starlight in your eyes
and i'm slowly coming alive for the very first time

i can't fight it, no ooo
i'm in love, and i like it, in your eyes starlight, starlight

i see the starlight in your eyes
slowly burning tears from the sky
i see the starlight in your eyes
and i'm slowly coming alive for the very first time

i can't fight it, no ooo

i'm in love, i can't fight it, no ooo
i'm in love, and i like it, in your eyes
