

Fame Factory, Unmistakable

Evreyone is looking for someone
Anyone willing to give their soul
Willing to loose control
A change of heart for someone who's lonely
And I die trying to understand
Hoping to make romance

We fall in and out of love to find the one

It's unmistakable
Somehow unshakable
Nothing can tear apart
A love that's true at heart
It's unmistakable
Sometimes unbarable
We're hoping to play a part
In a love that's true, so true
At heart

Every time, caught in the moment
Anytime there may be to much at stake
Somebody's heart will break

We fall in and out of love to find the one

It's unmistakable
Somehow unshakable
Nothing can tear apart
A love that's true at heart
It's unmistakable
Sometimes unbarable
We're hoping to play a part
In a love that's true, so true
At heart

I know
A time will come when love seems to be cold
But in the end
We need someone to hold

It's unmistakable
Somehow unshakable
Nothing can tear apart
A love that's true at heart
It's unmistakable
Sometimes unbarable
We're hoping to play a part
In a love that's true, so true at heart
