

Fame Factory, Walk A Mile

I'm sitting here all alone and you watching by the pal trying to read a book but don't know wich page I'm on you never know what road to take or what you're in you say you can't be something better then like the end of stairs

I wanna walk a mile with you before I go
I wanna see your smile, it's you I wanna know
I wanna walk a mile with you before I go
I long to see that smile that inspired me so much

I'm still wondering why you are so special to my heart is because I see most special things, details of you art when I'll penny you, I do forget you've been taken for a while I have no deffens, you just armed and mean when you led up a lovely smile you never know what road to take or what you're in you say you can't be something better then like the end of stairs

I wanna walk a mile with you before I go
I wanna see your smile, it's you I wanna know
I wanna walk a mile with you before I go
I long to see that smile that inspired me so much

I wanna walk a mile with you before I go
I wanna see your smile, it's you I wanna know
I wanna walk a mile with you before I go
I long to see that smile that inspired me so much

I wanna walk a mile with you before I go
I wanna see your smile, it's you I wanna know
I wanna walk a mile with you before I go
I long to see that smile that inspired me so much
