

Fancy, In The Rain Again

Running through your life
Can you see the wrong from right
Can you understand
You take my breath away
Love has lost and found
Many smiles
And many frowns
But I find you
When the rain
Comes falling down
What can I do
When our love's run away
How can I have you
When you're crying in the rain

In the rain again
Call my name, I'll be there
Can you take my hand
And give my love a try
In the rain again
Why the pain

Don't you care
Can you take a chance
You know my love is blind
Now you've lost your smile
In the rain again
In the rain again

How can I explain
You don't have to be afraid
When you're feeling down
I'm not so far away
Now you know I care
I'll be with you
Everywhere
I don't wanna see you
Standing there alone
What can I do
When our love's run away
How can I have you
When you're crying in the rain
