

Fancy, Pure Love

Your love is pure love

I don't need no little lies
I just want to emphasize
I just need you love
I don't need no foolish games
When I feel the rising flames
Inside my burning fantasy
There's no room for apologies

Your love brings me to my knees
It makes me cry a million tears
But it's good vibrations
Your love is pure love
It's like an everlasting dream

It's a pure sensation

I don't need no cheering words
I just know that loving hurts
If it's pure and good
I don't need no hide and seek
Strong emotions make me weak
And I need all my strength inside
To bring us safely through the night

Your love is pure love
My thoughts are like a roundabout
I get dizzy and...
