

Far Too Jones, Listen

I'm hanging at the circle k and I'm watching all the hip kids Tripping on the car wash and flipping me off today
"Hey man don't you want to see something new today?"
Hey wait now...

As for money ten's for show
Add a twenty she might go down 'cause it keeps her in cool clothes
She hates to sleep alone
So she promises she could do something new just for me
Hey wait now

What's this I'm feeling
What's this, this new, inconvenience
Always I'm in, a little deeper
I should know better
But I never really listen to me

Well I suppose that's just the way it goes
And it's over now but I found out Whatever doesn't kill you only makes you wish it did
So leave me alone
Cause I can't take this anymore
Hey wait now

I know I never really listen to me
I know I never really listen to me
What's this I'm feeling
