

Farmer's Boys, The Country Line

Sadness is in my mind again
In the shape of a beautiful woman who says she loves me so
Darlin' I've seen you walk away
All the hopes and dreams of the past few years
Have gone today

The country line's getting nearer
Drifting away
Where I'm going I don't know

Madness is knocking at my door
In the shape of a beautiful woman who says she loves me so
She says she loves me so

Oh darlin' yes, I've seen you walk away
But now it looks... well at least it seems
As if you're back to stay... alright

The country line's getting nearer
Drifting away
Where I'm going I don't know

Oh darlin'...
