

Faster Pussycat, Big Dictionary

You got the right pronunciation
You got the meaning all wrong
It's my, my first edition
Revise it if you like
But just remember it's a young man's book of bones

There's more to me than the words I read
Is it a language that's new to you
If you open your eyes instead of your legs
I wouldn't have to spell it out for you

She just loves me for my
Big dictionary
She wants my vocabulary
Complete from A to Z
She just loves me for my
Big dictionary
Mary, Mary's quite contrary
Thesaurus girl you ever seen

Can you ride my composition
It's a tongue and cheek religion
That I simply just made up
Maybe it's my, my superstition
You don't love me for my rhyme
Well you know that's just my luck

There's more to me than the words I read
Is it a language that's new to you
If you open your eyes instead of your legs
I wouldn't have to spell it out for you

She just loves me for my
Big dictionary
She wants my vocabulary
Complete from A to Z
She just loves me for my
Big dictionary
Mary, Mary's quite contrary
Thesaurus girl you ever seen

"Hey there, sunflower."
"If I was to let your fingers do the walking through my fellow pages"
"Would you know what they mean?"
"Oh yes I would. I know I would and between them I'll read."
