

Fat Amy, Chili Red

(R.J. Johnson/Guiney/Reedy)

At peace, with your pain seems like you hurt forever
Didn't want you to go away
Will it always feel the same way
Not a word, at my turn to speak could help anyone
Nothing I could say will bring you back again this too shall pass away
Bring it back again...
And I wouldn't waste the day
Bring it back again... this too shall Pass away Bring you back again... And I wouldn't waste the day
Is it supposed to feel this way
When you lose somebody
I will never love... Anyone again
