Fats Domino, Honest Papas Love Their Mamas E

I'm back again
Mama know that papa grow on jelly beans
Takes good care but pulls his hair when he gets mean
Papa know that mama goes for fancy dress
If papa give her nothing but the very best
If papa give her nothing but the very best
Honest papas love their mamas better

Mama know where papa goes so he revived Starts to croon is since his tune to ginny rock Papa know that mama shows her love is strong By waiting up for him until a early dawn By waiting up for him until a early dawn

Honest papas love their mamas better

They laughin' laughin' loud together And make their little world seems better And after laughin' fun is fun They kiss goodnight till the morning come Honest papas love their mamas better

Papa know that mama goes for fancy dress And papa give her nothing but the very best And papa give her nothing but the very best Honest papas love their mamas better Honest papas love their mamas better
