

Fatso Jetson, Flames For All

Let's watch the fire form
It crawls around the room
There's nothing it can lose
My memory turns to fuel
Then burns its way to you
That's where the action is
I'll leave you sleeping there
Warm wires through the door
This keeps me coming back
I'm coming back for more

He's back with flames for all
He'll keep it burning
He's a legend in his mind
Oh what a saviour
Saviour

He closed his eyes to see
The fixtures unfolding
I'll leave you sleeping there
Warm wires through the door
Keeps me coming back
I'm coming back for more
It burns in precious style
Late day orange and smoking pile
It's burning to the ground
It's burning to the ground

He's back with flames for all
He'll keep returning
He's a legend in his mind
Oh what a saviour
Saviour
Saviour
Saviour!

Aaaaah...
Aaaaah...
Aaaaah...
