

Fear Factory, Damaged

consequences that had left me for dead repercussions that went straight to your head trusting in no one
believing in nothing
living in a world of pure deception

so far this life is contemptuous
this mind, a gun, so relentless

damn! i am damaged for life!
damn! like i've been crucified!
and i can't believe i'm alive!

determined to destroy all that you know conceal your lies in the web you compose
trusting in no one

this mind, a gun, so relentless

damn! like i've been crucified!
damn! i am damaged for life damn!
and i can't believe i'm alive!
