Fear Factory, Damaged

consequences that had left me for dead repercussions that went straight to your head trusting in no one believing in nothing living in a world of pure deception

so far this life is contemptuous this mind, a gun, so relentless damn! i am damaged for life! damn! like i've been crucified! damn! i am damaged for life and i can't believe i'm alive!

determined to destroy all that you know conceal your lies in the web you compose trusting in no one believing in nothing living in a world of pure deception

damn! i am damaged for life! damn! like i've been crucified! damn! i am damaged for life damn! and i can't believe i'm alive!
