

Fear Factory, Hard To Reveal

Written & composed by Phil Wilde, Andy Janssens, Wanda Walker Janssens &

You see in my eyes a reflection
That I wanna give you affection
My eyes don't lie

They show you my deepest emotion
When we make love in slow motion
My eyes don't lie

All the things you see are previews of you and me
My eyes don't lie a thing
My eyes don't lie a thing

All the things I see are secrets you share with me
My eyes don't hide a thing
My eyes don't hide a thing

Chorus
It's hard to reveal
There's something about you
We're two halves of a whole
You're my heart - You're my soul

x2

No need to search for devotion
My body will give you the notion
My eyes don't lie

Swept by the deepest temptation
I'll show you my imagination
My eyes don't lie

All the things you see are previews of you and me
My eyes don't lie a thing
My eyes don't lie a thing

All the things you see are secrets you share with me
My eyes don't hide a thing
Your eyes don't hide a thing

Chorus x2
