

Fear Factory, Hurry Up

Written & composed by Phil Wilde, Andy Janssens & Kate Ryan

You don't give me affection
There's no more time to lose
You don't give me attention
You gotta know which road to choose (yeah)

I had a lot of patience
I gave you a second chance
And you tried to give the best of yourself
But that ain't good enough 'cause I changed my plans

Chorus
So hurry up, get out of my way
So hurry up, I don't want you to stay
So hurry up, get out of my way
And I know for sure there ain't nothin' more to say

x2

I thought you were honest
But all I heard were lies
So up to now you're only foolin' yourself
'Cause my heart stops here and now you'll pay the price

Chorus x2
