Fear Of God, Love's Death

Whispers in the darkness Cold lies burn like fire Page turns slowly fading the flame of desire Unholy flame of desire

You come crawling down upon your knees Liar You come crawling begging baby please

Love's death is a slow death Is a quick death But once it's over Fate's hand is a cold hand Is a sly hand is the hand on your shoulder But now you're older

You come crawling down upon your knees Liar You come crawling 'cause I got what you need Liar You come crawling begging me baby please.
