

Fear Of God, Wasted Time

Word's can't say
The way I feel

Word's can't save me

Faith has been broken
I'm no longer blind

Faith has been broken
Time after time

Harsh words are spoken
By those who deny
Harsh words are spoken

Lie always lies

He whispered "Be kind to me
Come kill me one more time
I'm lost in bitter rage"
Why, tell me why

Chorus

Holding on to the pain
Holding on, watch life fade
Holding on to the past
Holding on, to wasted time

I can't see through delusion
Oh I'm trying

Isn't life strange
When your living a lie.

Chorus
