

Feeder, Into The Blue

Out of sight into the blue.
Stepping on over just to get to you.
Got my head turned towards the lights.
Catching the rain with open eyes.
Been trying to reach you lately.
Been trying to reach you lately.

Because I can't take my eyes off you.
But I'm hoping you see me.
And I can't get my mind off you.
Now I'm hoping you'll reach me.

Two steps forward one step back.
I can't seem to find my tracks.
It's so strange the way we move.
Breakin' the shell just to get to you.
Been trying to reach you lately.
Been trying to reach you lately.

Because I can't take my eyes off you.
But I'm hoping you see me.
And I can't get my mind off you.
Now I'm hoping you'll reach me.

It's times like these.
I feel I'm not good enough.
Not good enough.
So how should I feel.

Because I can't take my eyes off you.
But I'm hoping you see me.
And I can't get my mind off you.
Now I'm hoping you'll reach me.

Because I can't take my eyes off you.
But I'm hoping you see me.
And I can't get my mind off you.
Now I'm hoping you'll reach me.
