

Feeder, San Diego

I've got one thing left to say
I hope that things turn out OK
Maybe some day you will come around

Mabye we're too self-obsessed, materialistic, over-sexed
Energizers, silicone, aviators, mobile phones

I'll tell you one thing, gonna make it
Start a new life, be connected

Cause you will never see me drown, I'll build a ship when bridges burn
I don't want to fall back in, defenses down when eyes are staring in, staring in

San Diego (San Diego) that's where I'll go (that's where I'll go)
We'll watch the waves rise yeah as bodies glisten in the sun
San Diego sounds like fun

I just wanna find that place, journey into outer space
Watch the world through telescopes, send back photos to the folks

I'll tell you one thing, gonna make it
Start a new life, be connected

Cause you will never see me drown, I'll build a ship when bridges burn, yeah
I don't want to fall back in, defenses down when eyes are staring in, staring in

San Diego (San Diego) that's where I'll go (that's where I'll go)
We'll watch the waves rise yeah as bodies glisten in the sun
San Diego (San Diego) that's where I'll go (that's where I'll go)
We'll watch the waves rise yeah as bodies glisten in the sun
San Diego sounds like fun, fun

Me, myself I always burn my fears away as substance turns me into something I can't be

San Diego (San Diego) that's where I'll go (that's where I'll go)
We'll watch the waves rise yeah as bodies glisten in the sun
San Diego (San Diego) that's where I'll go (that's where I'll go)
We'll watch the waves rise yeah as bodies glisten in the sun
San Diego (San Diego) that's where I'll go (that's where I'll go)
