

Feeling Left Out, At Arm's Length

You've met your match sounds like a superhero he's just like you,
he's just like you
he's everything you are looking for oves your every move sleep next to him.. while I sleep alone

I'm just asking for honesty now
I need a reason to keep you away
A reason to keep you at arms length I never should have let you back in and now its 3:17

as my alarm clock seems to read

This hate has nothing to do with you I hate myself for letting it get this far once again I could have prevented this harm but living in sin,
it keeps us warm.. keeps me warm

I'm just asking for honesty now
I need a reason to keep you away
A reason to keep you at arms length

it's 3:17
as my alarm clock seems to read similar situation happened last year should have been fair warning to keep you at arms length

to keep you at arms length
