

Fell Far Behind, Just Once

Just this once,
Nothing more,
You wanted to know,
So now you know,
What happens now?
Hurry, your feelings aren't worthless

Why just once?
Why must everything get complicated?
And I know,
That it's against the rules,
But I still want you.

So tell me,
How you feel?
Now that you know,
Can you go on as though we're friends?
Just pretend this never happened?

Why just once?
Why must everything get complicated?
And I know,
That it's against the rules,
But I still want you.

And I know (and i know),
It's against the rules,

So now what am I to do?
When all i want is to save you,
Save you,

I saw you in the corner
writing in your book of thoughts
what did i mean?

Tell me how you feel
