

Fenrik Lane, Eager

Is it true what they say
Making progress day by day
How good for you
I have seen these things before
Working night and day
Just to get through
You fool

Consider yourself lucky
That you're needed around
So eager
Start living your life
Cause you're running out of time
So eager

I can see why you are breaking down
Deadlines at work are falling bard on you
Just another workaholic
The pile in your office is now controlling you
You fool.

Consider yourself lucky
That you're needed around
So eager
Start living your life
Cause you're running out of time.
So eager

Your bosses they think you're special
You don't need them now
You work your ass off for nickels and dimes
You don't need them now
Quit your job and say goodbye.
