

FFH, Have I Ever Told You

Have I ever told you that I'm,
Sorry it didn't work out.
Have I ever told you that I'm,
I'm sorry that I walked out.
Have I ever told you that I'm,
Sorry that didn't think about how it was going to make you feel.

Have I ever told you that I'm,
I'm sorry I wasn't honest.
We don't know how these lies,
Are going to come back to haunt us.
Have I ever told you that I'm,
I'm sorry that I broke my promise,
That I made to you.

But I believe,
It was right for me,
Or at least it seemed so at the time.
But reality,
Got the best of me,
And I guess I lost my mind.
My mind.

Have I ever told you that I'm,
I'm sorry that I forgot,
Just how hard I said I'd try,
I thought I did, but I guess not.
Have I ever told you that I,
I've been thinkin' about this quite an awful lot.

And I believe,
It is right for me,
Or at least it seemed so at the time.
But reality,
Got the best of me,
And I guess I lost my mind.
My mind.

Have I ever told you that I,
I love the way you turned out.
Have I ever told you that I,
I've been watchin' and I'm so proud.
Have I ever told you that I,
I'm still tryin' to figure out
what's inside of me.

But I believe,
There is hope for me ,
And it's going to take some time.
And the God who sees,
What's inside of me,
I know he can change my mind.

And I believe,
There is hope for me,
And it's going to take some time.
And the God who sees,
What's inside of me,
I know he can change my mind.
My Mind.
