"Kiss me, my angel"

From the sky in the fresco.

I want to let love's wings flutter

"Bless me and my heart"

I do not want to part

Grant my dream

It is Autumn all around
Piercing this shining heart
To be together
You continue to pray

For the first time I think I'm in love
Uneasiness brims up

Directed to your eyes

"Kiss me, my angel"
In a grey field
The whispering of love's melody rains incessantly
"Bless me and my heart"
I do not want to part
Grant my dream

Coming out from behind the clouds
Without hesitation, a light
Take both their hands
Like one painting

When we touch each other for the first time
My whole self pours
Inside your eyes

"Sing me, my angel"
From the sky in the fresco
The soprano of love's melody echoes
"Bless me, my sorrow"
I want to continue believing
In a love far away

The flowers depended on scatter
Uneasiness overflows out
Toward your eyes

"Kiss me, my angel"
From the sky in the fresco.
I want to let love's wings flutter
I have only one wish
I do not want to part
For eternity
Grant my love

I place my prayer
Inside the all encompassing light
