

Fiddler's Green, Popcorn

There's a cold wind blowing.
Will you find your way home?
There's a cold wind blowing.

Wherever you are,
Will you find your way home?
Sweet darling,
Will you find your way home?

There's a cold wind blowing.
Will you find your way home?
Will you find your way home?

Oh baby,
Wherever you are,
Will you find your way home?
Sweet darling,
Will you find your way home?
